

Planting Green Ideas

2009 Batavia Farmers' Market Schedule (subject to change)

Stop by the new "Planting Green Ideas" each week of the Batavia Farmers' Market to check out the green scene and organizations working to educate and implement environmentally friendly ideas and products. The Batavia Farmers' Market runs Saturdays from 8 am until Noon from June 27th until October 10th on S. Water Street (one block east of Rt. 31) between Wilson Street and First Street in downtown Batavia.

- June 27: "Bike to the Market" by Prairie Path Cycles and Friends
- July 4: "Free Recycling" – Resources to help you give away used items of worth
- July 11: "Peak Energy Program" by Batavians for Clean Energy & Conservation
- July 18: Women's Club and Audubon Society
- July 25: Batavians for a Healthy River
- August 1: "Why CFL for Your House?" by Congregational Church
- August 8: "Non-Traditional Ways to Preserve Your Harvest" by Sarah Harmon
- August 15: "Traditional Ways to Preserve Your Harvest" by Plain Dirt Gardeners
- August 22: Geothermal Heating and Cooling" by Dirk Dypold of Advanced Geothermal Plumbing & Heating, Elgin
- August 29: "How to Start Green in Your Church" by Spiritual Green Connection
- Sept. 12: "Composting" by University of Illinois Extension
- Sept. 19: Batavia Environmental Commission
- Sept. 26: Batavia Bicycle Group
- October 3: Beekeepers Demonstration
- October 10: Seed Exchange
- October 24: (at BatFest) "Cider Press" by Four Winds Waldorf School or Warrenville

For more information about the Batavia MainStreet "Planting Green Ideas" group, contact Craig Copper at (630) 454-4004 or email ckcopper@comcast.net.